Slide 1

Slide 2

Slide 3

- Effective November 1, 2013, all notaries conducting signings for "Preferred Lenders" will be required to have a background check by NNA or Sterling on file with FNF (Fidelity National Financial and any of its subsidiaries) For Example Bank of America BMO Harris JP Morgan Chase Union Bank US Bank Wells Fargo Slide 4 What is Fidelity Approval? (8.8) Slide 5 • 2 ways to qualify A signing company is qualified, then each of their employees and notaries will be qualified under them if the notary is NNA or Sterling BGC cleared. No time frame, experience level required. How is it obtained? Slide 6 A notary is sponsored by an employee of a FNF company who is NNA or Sterling BGC cleared. They submit a request for application to be sent to notary. What do I Fill out the application that is sent to you by FNF corporate Demonstrate 2 yrs. NSA work Application must get approval If disapproved can apply again next year do? (8.5)

Slide 7 Signing Entity or sole notary? Commission, (less than 2 yr old, include previous) Bond, DL, W9 E&O (100K/1M), Title Producer Lic (DC/IN/MD) Professional Responsibilities Agreement 3 dr party confidential Agreement Background check information and Requirements Notice, Authorization and Release of existing Certificates Confirmation of Vendor for BGC FNTG Application (8.8) Slide 8 TRID training self certification Consumer complaint handling procedure Independent Contractor Status Test Proof of business item (bus lic/invoice) FNTG Application Business References and Certification of 2 yr experience Slide 9 2,000,000 Why do I want it? 42.6% market share Resulting in FNF® direct title operations capturing nearly 2 in every 4

(8 8) 10 0 110 V

Slide 10

When should I go after it?

- When you have:

 - Completed NSA training,
 BGC by NNA or Sterling and
 Have enough experience to feel confident in your notary skill
 If less than 2 yrs, put what experience you have, if disapproved, reapply the following year.

Slide 11

Q &A

